

CONTENTS

VOL. 25 JANUARY 1964 NO. 3

American Camellia Society Makes Significant Changes in Rules for Cooperative Shows	3
California Camellia Show Schedule — 1964	8
Camellias: Their Feminine Protagonists. Part III. Margaret Howard Thompson	18
Dinner Will Highlight Descanso Show	26
Directory of Affiliated Societies	32
For California People Only	29
How to Succeed in Camellias Without Really Trying — Much. Frank Reed	10
Hybrids Are A Challenge. Hamilton Fish	22
Index to Advertisers	32
Judy Peet — Teen Age Camellia Society Member. L. R. Shuey	17
Keeping Them Up To Size. Cecil H. Eshelman	15
Know Your Southern California Nurserymen. Part 8 — Andrew Surina Ernest (Erni) Pieri	30
'Moña Monique' — Its History. Harold E. Dryden	28
New 1964 Edition of "Camellia Nomenclature"	31
Next S. C. C. S. Meeting on Tuesday, January 14th	25
No S. C. C. S. Membership Cards to Members	21
On Showing Camellias. Mrs. Agnes Rowell	7
Preparing Camellia Blooms For Shows. Dr. Leland E. Chow	5
Survival of the Most Fit. C. R. Parks	12
Temple City Camellia Society	29
Temple City Society Breakfast	26
Thoughts From the Editor	2
What To Do?	9

THE COVER FLOWER

C. japonica 'Coral Queen'

This japonica seedling is a 1963 introduction of Nuccio's Nurseries of Altadena, California. It is a large semi-double coral pink flower with fluted petals. It blooms mid-season on a vigorous upright plant.