

---

---

CONTENTS

VOL. 26	MARCH 1965	NO. 5
Camellia Personalities — The Dekkers. Roy Thompson	24
Entomological Report on Common Pests in Camellia Gardens. Mrs. Estelle Lindsley	17
Fifty Year Hobby a Labor of Love — David and Tillie Worth of New Orleans, La.	18
Fall Camellia Show on December 4-5, 1965	10
Howard Asper on Hybridizing	8
International Camellia Society Meeting	23
Jack Clark Writes From New Zealand	19
Marshall Has New Seedling	28
Mistakes I Have Made. Edwards H. Metcalf	20
Modesto Get-Together	10
Plant Nutrients	26
Plants For Flower Arranging	28
Reticulatas — To Have or Not To Have? Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Miller	7
Show Results	14
Some Relatives of the Camellia. John M. Fogg, Jr.	3
Temple City Camellia Society	28
Thoughts From the Editor	2
What Camellias Mean to Me. Roy T. Thompson	13
What's Behind the Green Thumb	11
Winings Blooms at S. C. C. S. Meetings	23

---

---

THE COVER FLOWER

Nuccio's Nurseries of Altadena, California, who introduced 'Cover Girl' in the Fall of 1964, thought that the ladies would like it and their expectations have been realized. It is a clear pink irregular formal flower that is medium to large in size. It blooms from early to late. The plant is compact and upright.

---

---